Dear Parent/Carer,

As part of the evolving Year 7 'Illustration' scheme of work, the Art Department at Woodrush, have secured an amazing opportunity for students to complete a half day Artist workshop with mixed media illustrator Georgina Luck.

Artist website: <https://www.georginaluck.com/>

Some of Georgina's clients include: The New York Times Magazine, Arla, M&S, Tesco, Mother, Country Living, Sport Magazine and Heinz.

Georgina will give a talk about her journey to becoming an illustrator, her process and techniques. Followed by a demo and then practical workshop involving playful sketching, mark making and observation, followed by lots of paint outside the lines and getting to know inks.

The workshop, will take place throughout the school day, on either the 10TH, 11TH or 12TH of February, and aims to educate and enthuse pupils in illustration, teaching them all techniques and tricks of the trade. This will help to inform their own artwork, which we will develop further in school. At the end of the session, each student will go away with a range of sketches, a watercolour study and a group piece.

Inviting such a fantastic artist into school obviously incurs costs, so we kindly ask for a voluntary contribution of £9 to help cover this and the resources used on the day.

This workshop runs on a first come first served basis as we only have limited places. Students not involved in the workshops will be in their normal lessons.

If you would like your child to attend this workshop please log into your secure online ParentPay account by Monday 27st Jan 2025. Making a payment is straightforward and ParentPay holds an electronic record of your payments to view at a later date; no card details are stored in any part of the system.
